

That's None Of Your Business

Chuck Berry

I'm so tired of you all telling me what you think I oughta do
Nosin' into my business when it ain't concernin' you

Ah, it ain't your business
Mmm, it ain't none of your business
Nosin' into my business
When it ain't concernin' you

They oughta stay at home and do some tendin' to they own
And practice what they preach and leave us other folks alone

Ah, it ain't none of your business
Believe me, it ain't your business
You oughta practice what you preach
And leave us other folks alone

If I got out and buy a Lincoln Continental coupe
And ain't got nothin' at home to eat but hot potato soup

Ah, it ain't none of your business
Believe me, it ain't your business
If I ain't got nothin' at home to eat
But hot potato soup

Why don't I sit down front beside you in the deacon pew
It's because I'm diggin' the gospel just as good as you

Ah, it ain't none of your business
Ah, believe me, it ain't your business
It's just because I'm diggin' the gospel
Just as good as you

Why don't I sit down front beside you in the deacon pew
It's because I'm diggin' the gospel just as much as you

Ah, it ain't none of your business
Believe me, it ain't your business
It's just because I'm diggin' the gospel
Just as much as you
