

Naked Ray

Chuck Prophet

Eat your dinner in your room
Dream a hole right through the roof
We never were the best of friends
People said we looked like twins
But you're not foolin' me
You're not foolin' me
Naked Ray
Well they say she's crazy, I don't know
She drinks her share, goes off alone
She always keeps her feelings hid

Same way that our mother did
But you're not foolin' me
You're not foolin' me
Naked Ray
Naked Ray
You shouldn't have messed with my sister
Nah, you shouldn't have messed with my sister
No, you shouldn't have messed with my sister
She left a Realistic stereo
And a phone that doesn't ring anymore
