

Body

Chumbawamba

Fighter breaks the web, lights a fire, quite nature Hearing laughter, still and silent, AWAKE THE HUNTER...

Man tore the tree of knowledge down and made it into paper money thinking he could buy - himself a better world.
MORE MONEY WON'T BUY A BETTER WORLD

Man consumes is all consuming the earth becomes a treeless moorland more money and more lies - more power and more waste.
MY BODY WILL BE MY STATEMENT

This destruction of the earth requires our co-operation our voices and our bodies - our money and our work

I say no,
this body is mine, this earth is mine,
I won't allow - this body,
to play a part in the destruction, of this earth.
