Rape

Chumbawamba

Leaving at 11:00, walking past your windows see the kitchen, full of television?? men who grow up in silence, need a voice old and ordinary, she didn't understand...

Logic was simple, based upon reason a nice girl wouldn't be out alone SOME GIRLS GET WHAT THEY ASK FOR this family we're nice girls blocked in by marriage, secure in his home,
PROTECTED,
BUT NEVER FREE..

They rape us in the courts where the victims go on trial rape us with their culture, promises and smiles.

Rape us with their wars to the victor goes the prize rape us with big business, security and lies

They take away our dignity and sell us plastic sex take away our choices and leave us no respect.

Rape is hurt men, hurting women betraying trust calculated violence not uncontrollable lust.

Rape's a power assertion from the press to the street selling papers, selling products - packaged sex, packaged meat.
