

When I Get Old

Chung Ha

Oh, when I get old
I'll be lookin' back, wishin' it could last forever
Oh, yesterday, seem so far away

Long dress, no shoes
Summer nights, golden and blue
It feels just like we're stuck, I side a picture frame
These memories never fade away, oh-oh-oh
Whisper to me, we got the world right at our feet
And I just wanna sit right here and look at you
That's probably all I ever do

Oh, when I get old
I'll be lookin' back, wishin' it could last forever
Oh, yesterday, seem so far away
Where did it go all of the nights
All the time we spent together?
Oh, yesterday, seem so far away

Wake up and smile
'Cause you're beautiful those hazel eyes
When I get old, that's all I wanna think about
I probably shouldn't say this out loud
High hopes, big dreams
And a little scared, way too naive
Thinkin' you always be mine and never leave my side
At least these mem'ries never say goodbye

Oh, when I get old
I'll be lookin' back, wishin' it could last forever
Oh, yesterday, seem so far away
Where did it go all of the nights
All the time we spent together?
Oh, yesterday, seem so far away

Someday, I'm runnin' out of time
I'll see your picture in my mind
I'll keep our love frozen in time

Oh, when I get old
I'll be lookin' back, wishin' it could last forever
Oh, yesterday, seem so far away
Where did it go all of the nights
All the time we spent together?
Oh, yesterday, seem so far away
