Why don't you know?

Why don't you know?

Why don't you know?

In case you can't see my heart, close to me

Do you really not know? Never

My heart's pounding, what's wrong with me?

Tell me some ya story

I can't figure you out, close to you

You shake me up, dizzy

Every single day, my love babe

Again today, you act like it's the first time

You make me rush

You're maybe my love babe

Though I don't know since when

You keep saying it's not

It is for me

But why?

Why do you say it's not love?

It's my heart

But why?

Why don't you know?

Why don't you know?

The world is still old and love is still young

I tell you how I feel but it's too hard to close it out

You'll regret it after time, it's your loss

I'll tell you in advance but only I can be your pilot

In the morning, I put on clothes that's in your favorite color

I believe in a connection that dresses up as coincidence

You can say no, I don't care, never give up

Stars are falling, hurry and make a wish

You make me special

You make me feel better babe

As if you know me better than anyone else

I fall asleep as I draw you out

I'm in too deep babe

Although I might seem like a fool

You keep saying it's not

It is for me

But why?

Why do you say it's not love?

It's my heart

But why?

Why don't you know?

You don't know anything

You don't know

But you act like you know

I just wanna be your girl

You keep saying it's not

It is for me

But why?

Why do you say it's not love?

It's my heart

But why?

Why don't you know?

Why don't you know?

Why don't you know?
