

God No!

Chxrlotte

Heaven cannot help you
The devil is yourself
Heaven cannot help you
When you're already in hell
They're all out to get you
Believe me, I can tell
Everybody left you
And they'll bury you right where you fell

Say all your farewells...

Save yourself!
You can tell me "go to hell"
Because the only God that I believe in is myself
You've only got your soul to sell
You lie to the devil and it won't end well

God no!
God no!

All of the best liars
Believe in their own lies
Preaching to the choir
With the devil in their eyes
It's warm here by the fire
The air here is divine
But don't call me a liar
When the temperature begins to rise

Say all your goodbyes...

Save yourself!
You can tell me "go to hell"
Because the only God that believe in is myself
You've only got your soul to sell
You lie to the devil and it won't end well

God no!
God no!

Oh my God, can you believe
That heaven's full of liars and thieves?
And now you're out you're finally free
Time to save your soul and come with me

Save yourself!
You can tell me "go to hell"
Because the only God that I believe in is myself
You've only got your soul to sell
You lie to the devil and it won't end well (and it won't end well)
Save yourself!
You can tell me "go to hell" (go to hell)
Because the only God that I believe in is myself
You've only got your soul to sell
You lie to the devil and it won't end well
God no!
God no!

Oh

(Ooh ooh ooh ooh)
