

The End.

Chxrlotte

Isn't it perfect
Now I'm alone
They say I deserve this
I guess that I flew too low

Oh, don't leave me alone
No, I guess I should've known
Those who promise the most are first to go
While walking 'round with closed eyes
Fell for all their own lies
Waited a while but now it's time

Maybe the sun was made to set
Maybe I'll never fly again
Is this the end? (there's no need to pretend)
And maybe the worst was in my head
The person you knew before is dead
This is the end

Isn't it perfect
With nothing to lose
Are you feeling nervous? (under the surface)
Now that I've learned the truth

Heaven cannot help you
Had to go to hell to
Forgive myself and learn to lose
Now god knows I have no doubt
Found out on the way down
Nothing on earth can stop me now

Maybe the sun was made to set
Maybe I'll never fly again
Is this the end? (there's no need to pretend)
And maybe the worst was in my head
The person you knew before is dead
This is the end

I think I made my own hell
Did I do this to myself?
I think I made my own hell
Did I do this to myself?
I think I made my own hell
Did I do this to myself?
I think I made my own hell
I think I made my own hell
Hell

But maybe the sun was made to set
Maybe I'll never fly again
This is the end (there's no need to pretend)
And maybe the worst was in my head
The person you knew before is dead
This is the end (there's no need to pretend)
