

Crocodiles

Cian Ducrot

Wipe the crocodiles from your eyes
'Cause we both know you're not crying
Save the stories for someone else
'Cause believe me I ain't buyin

You know me more than anybody
But still you just can't figure me out
I know you, at least I thought that I did
Never would have second guessed it
But now I guess that I've just messed it up, again

Tell me what you know about friends
What's the point of starting if it ends?
Never thought you'd be the one to leave
Never woulda called myself naive
Tell me what you think about us
And all the things you know about trust
And they say friends come and go
But how can you be friends with someone you don't even know

Did you get all that you needed
Advantage of me and everything in between
Was it everything you wanted
Picking sides like wrong was right

You know me more than anybody
And still you just can't figure me out
I know you at least I thought that I did
Never would have second guessed it
But now I guess that I've just messed it up, again

Tell me what you know about friends
What's the point of starting if it ends?
Never thought you'd be the one to leave
Never woulda called myself naive
Tell me what you think about us
And all the things you know about trust
And they say friends come and go
But how can you be friends with someone you don't even know

No no no no no no
You don't even know
No no no no no no
You don't even know
No no no no no no
You don't even know

Tell me what you know about friends
What's the point of starting if it ends?
Never thought you'd be the one to leave
Never woulda called myself naive
Tell me what you think about us
And all the things you know about trust
And they say friends come and go
But how can you be friends with someone you don't even know
