

Here It Is

Cian Ducrot

So, here it is
We're falling to pieces now
So, here it is
You're all that I need right now
And so it is
Never thought we'd back down
So, here it is, here it is
Our end is now

Oh, we'd face it all
But our pieces fall
Can we give this pain to somebody else?
Or, when it hurts to love, is it better to end?
Oh, we fought so hard
But we've grown apart
Can we hold it all together in pain?
Or, when it hurts to love, is it better to break?
I'm falling to pieces now

Here it is
Nothing else matters now
Here it is
The world's standing still somehow
And so it is
I'm lying on the ground
Here it is
Our time's finally running out

Oh, we'd face it all
But our pieces fall
Can we give this pain to somebody else?
Or, when it hurts to love, is it better to end?
Oh, we fought so hard
But we've grown apart
Can we hold it all together in pain?
Or, when it hurts to love, is it better to break?
We're falling to pieces now

Our time's finally running out
Here it is
Our time's finally running out
Here it is
Our time's finally running out
Here it is
Our time's finally running—
