Him

Cian Ducrot

I'm killing myself, and you've fallen for Somebody else you knew before
Said you were friends, I knew it was false
All of the signs I tried to ignore

If I tell you, "I'm leaving", would you come clean?
I won't tell you, "I'm done", baby, stay with me

Had I known that you needed him
From the way that you looked at me
I'd never have let you leave
I'd have been on my knees
Oh, I'm falling down
'Cause you can't be found
When I'm missing you
It's a lonely road

Am I just a man to walk around?
Someone you regret, something you drowned
And all of the things that you said you don't
But you turned your back, I thought you'd grown up

If I tell you, "I'm leaving", would you come clean?
I won't tell you, "I'm done", baby, stay with me

Had I known that you needed him
From the way that you looked at me
I'd never have let you leave
I'd have been on my knees
Oh, I'm falling down
'Cause you can't be found
When I'm missing you
It's a lonely road

Would you let me love you, darling? (Oh, no, no)
Would you let me love you now? (Oh, no, no) Oh, I
Would you let me love you, darling? (Oh, no, no)
Would you let me love you now?

Had I known that you needed him (Oh, no, no)
From the way that you looked at me
I'd never have let you leave (Oh, no, no)
I'd have been on my knees
Oh, I'm falling down
'Cause you can't be found
When I'm missing you
It's a lonely road
