

somebody else

Cian Ducrot

Cold ice, for my eye
With our friends standing by Thinking it can only be a small fight
I hold tight for my life
As my shirt turns from white to red
Darling

I smile through my blood
To see the look on your face
And you're thinking how did we get to be in this place
And I say, 'm alright
But you know when I'm fine, tonight
Darling

You said through all of this your glad you didn't pick a side
But you are not the one that had to leave your love behind

You left me broken
A whole year since we've spoken
Did you think we'd end this way
Did you think we'd end this way
I know we were only 16 when you told me
You can never feel this way, with somebody else
But now you feel the same with somebody else

It's not hard to forget, when you love someone else
I know the tears would never scar your makeup
That I feel like a threat with my cold silhouette
Fell for you
Through a cold cigarette was all, you needed me to be
All alone in my bed, not a rest for your head
When my heart beats lonely

You said through all of this your glad you didn't pick a side
But you are not the one that had to leave your love behind

You left me broken
A whole year since we've spoken
Did you think we'd end this way
Did you think we'd end this way
I know we were only 16 when you told me
You can never feel this way, with somebody else
But now you feel the same with somebody else

You left me broken
A whole year since we've spoken
Did you think we would end this way
Did you think we would end this way
I know we were only 16 when you told me
You can never feel this way, with somebody else
But now you feel the same with somebody else

You left me broken (you left me broken)
A whole year since we've spoken (since we've spoken)
Did you think we'd end this way (think, we'd end this way)
Did you think we'd end this way (think, we'd end this way)
I know we were only 16 when you told me (Told me)

You can never feel this way, with somebody else (Feel this way)
But now you feel the same with somebody else (somebody else)
