

Fly

Ciara

You know what I think?
You should just fly

If you have any feelings
Let 'em go, let 'em go
I woke up wasting your kiss
You can go, there's the door

And I know that I wasn't in the picture
Tried to paint it, looking perfect
And it never worked for the both of us
I'mma let you know, now I'll let you go

You should fly, for the first time in a long time
Just fly, let you go, let you go
Let you fly, for the first time in a long time
Just fly, let you go, let you go, oh

When I was at your house
I was sad, I was down
Tried to fix what we had
Didn't work, wasn't sure

Oh! Oh! Oh! [x5]

You should fly, for the first time in your own life
Just fly, let your real ambitions go
And fly, you should fly, for the first time in a long time
Just fly, fly, fly, fly
