

J'ai fait un vœu, je dois me rassembler
Ce sera peut-être celle choisie par Bella

Now I'm hungry again, I gotta get it together
Maybe this'll be the one picked up by Bella

It's been a while now since we last spoke
Caught you picking up some bad habits, money in the coat
And you're getting a little angry now, it's "fuck this" and "fuck the m"
Once upon a time they all said your name
Now you're looking at your empty pockets, wondering what's changed
Have they got what I've got, what's the game, can I play it please?

Now I'm hungry again, I gotta get it together
Maybe this'll be the one picked up by Bella
Now I'm hungry again, I gotta get it together
Maybe this'll be the one picked up by Bella

You cut your hair, change your clothes, lose the suit
Tell yourself that you're better off alone
Things to do, songs to sing, songs to write, Spotify pay my life
Become a parody of a singer-songwriter
Drowning in your misery, hoping it'll inspire
I need a hit, can I take it, what to do, can I fake it?

Now I'm hungry again, I gotta get it together
Maybe this'll be the one picked up by Bella
Now I'm hungry again, I gotta get it together
Maybe this'll be the one picked up by Bella

Turn a page, turn a year, turn a new age
Fucking up so fast that there's no way to ever really gauge
How to float, how to win, how to breathe, how to live

Now I'm hungry again, I gotta get it together
Maybe this'll be the one picked up by Bella
Now I'm hungry again, I gotta get it together
Maybe this'll be the one picked up by Bella
