

Destroyer

Ciaran Lavery

You feed some words into my mouth
And now I paint them across town
I hate myself for being weak
But I hate you more for wanting me

Destroyer destroyer destroyer
The damage is all that you came here for
Destroyer destroyer destroyer

Destroyer destroyer destroyer
I try but you scream that you want more
Destroyer destroyer destroyer

My hands are tied up in every way
Although I'm alive I can't feel anything
I drew a line across my throat
It's where your name gets caught the most

Destroyer destroyer destroyer
The damage is all that you came here for
Destroyer destroyer destroyer

Destroyer destroyer destroyer
I try but you scream that you want more
Destroyer destroyer destroyer

Where has my clarity gone?
This is my apathy song
You ripped me open and told me this is real love
I'm not at one with myself
There's something wrong with my health
To be a victim at will
For your affection
Where has my clarity gone?
This is my apathy song
You ripped me open and told me this is real love
I'm not at one with myself
There's something wrong with my health
To be a victim at will
For your affection

Destroyer destroyer destroyer
The damage is all that you came here for
Destroyer destroyer destroyer

Destroyer destroyer destroyer
I try but you scream that you want more
Destroyer destroyer destroyer
