

Everything Considered

Ciaran Lavery

Sleeping alone, feelings of home
Everything considered
Sleeping around, ill-fitted crown
Everything considered
Telling me plenty with my belly empty, hail to the lizard

Codeine and wine, cry baby cry

Dreaming aloud, not coming down
Everything considered
Name in my head, your name in my head
Everything considered
Giving me change on a nothing exchange
The pill's turning bitter

Codeine and wine, mine all mine

I want to feel it all, don't you?
I want to feel it all, don't you?
I want to feel it all with you
I want to feel it all with you
With you...
