

Full Love

Ciaran Lavery

I'm unstoppable tonight
Watch me liberate in a golden light
Sinking low and then climbing high
Tuck your shirt inside your jeans
Close your eyes and come to me
You're the river, I'm a tepid stream
There's a lesson in the dream

Why do we stand alone and burn
Instead of taking what we've earned

That full love, that full love
Full love, that full love
Full love, that full love

I'm improbable tonight
See me soar across an empty sky
In this light you are Jesus Christ
I want nothing of your past
The pointless holding of what can't be grasped
Walking barefoot down a stoney path
Life's a shoebox of photographs

Lead me by the arm inside
Kiss my nape and give me all

That full love, that full love
Full love, that full love
Full love, that full love
Full love, that full love
Full love, that full love
Full love, that full love
Full love, that full love
