

Funnier

Ciaran Lavery

I don't sleep a single night
Jesus, I have lost my mind
Are you dead, are you alive?
Are you true or just a lie?

But your head down this sound
You know I love you if I'm not around
I don't expect you to under
Oh, but here's the voice of your old man

Scared that I've already failed you
Absent father never rang true
But are you even mine at all?
Can you hear me when I call?

Wonder, will you know my name?
And wonder, will you oughta know it all the same?

Funny, you might not exist
Funnier that I would miss you
Funny, you might not exist
Funnier that I would miss you
Is it funnier that I would miss you?
