Wicked Teeth

Ciaran Lavery

I know you watch me from afar
You've been standing there for days
Will you wait till I'm alone?
Then you'll come take me away

I see you sharpening your claws
I can feel them in my sleep
And I hear your baited breath
And it's hot against my cheek

Would your sink your wicked teeth?
Would you lock your jaws down tight?
Would you let my blood run to sweet?
Take me off into the night
Take me off into the night

I could never stray from you
And you keep me in your sight
But I feel your hands are tading
It's like the timing isn't right

Would your sink your wicked teeth?
Would you lock your jaws down tight?
Would you let my blood run sweet?
Take me off into the night
Take me off into the night

Would your sink your wicked teeth?
Would you lock your jaws down tight?
Would you let my blood run sweet?
Take me off into the night
Take me off into the night
