

Lightworks

Cibelle

What is the magic that makes one's eyes
Sparkle and gleam, light up the skies
The name of the game is lightworks

What do you call a pair of eyes
That sparkle and gleam, light up the skies
The name of the game is lightworks

What do you call a pair of eyes
That sparkle and gleam, light up the skies
The name of the game is lightworks

How do you show those teasing lips
So they dazzle and shine, his heart does flips
The name of the game is lightworks

How do you blush so shyly
And make it linger
Yet boldly polish
Your ring finger
The name of the game is
Is lightworks

Lightworks is the game girls play
When they want someone to say
The name of the game is you, baby
