

Elysian Fields

Cider Sky

Was it always there before me
Beyond the veil somewhere
Where teardrops leave the air
Stand me closer to you slowly
The space that's in between
The waking and the dream

Flickering life like the light of a candle
Opened my eyes, you were changing the channel
Touched the beyond 'cause I'm longing to get through
Everything turned when I met you

I found paradise in a pair of eyes
But heaven weighs so heavy on me
And I've got no words for the way I feel
In these Elysian Fields
Elysian Fields

There's no end, only beginning
Like water over stones
The river Styx, it flows
So place a coin under my tongue now
And we can sail away
Forget the bitter taste

Flickering life like the light of a candle
Opened my eyes, you were changing the channel
Touched the beyond 'cause I'm longing to get through
Everything turned when I met you

I found paradise in a pair of eyes
But heaven weighs so heavy on me
And I've got no words for the way I feel
In these Elysian Fields
Elysian Fields

I found paradise in a pair of eyes
But heaven weighs so heavy on me
And I've got no words for the way I feel
In these Elysian Fields
Elysian Fields
