

Pieces

Cider Sky

From head to heart
I've never felt the ocean floor to stars
I've never been sprung like this before
I'm gonna blame it all on you
And this beat so hot
I'm never gonna come back down the slide
I've never felt oh so bold
So shy so tell me what you want to do

I don't ever feel lost
When you're holding my hand
Oh the world can hear us
When I'm holding
Pieces of you
Pieces of me
We fit together perfectly
And I'm falling
Now I'm falling
For pieces of you

The way you hit my heart
I know it's not logical
It's like an arrow shot through the dark
So hard
The colors all fall apart

I say it's impossible
How everything feels so magical
You turn up all the lights
It's beautiful
I fall into the moon

I don't ever feel lost
When I'm holding
Pieces of you
Pieces of me
We fit together perfectly
And I'm falling
Now I'm falling

Follow, follow
Follow and you run to me
Echo, echo
I know this is meant to be
Follow, follow follow and you run to me
You run to me

Pieces of you
Pieces of me
We fit together perfectly
And I'm falling
Now I'm falling

For pieces of you
Pieces of me
We fit together perfectly
I am falling

Now I'm falling
For pieces of you
