

White Doves

Cider Sky

Distant star
Don't stop shining
My heart's broke
But I'm still trying

Silent shore
See you waving
One last word
But I can't hear you

Watching white doves fly
As you close your eyes
And I don't dare try
I don't know how to say goodbye
Goodbye

Keep holding on to let go
This is the ending I know
It cuts me right to the bone
This is the ending I know
