

Matters

Cierra Ramirez

Running from a house with no walls
Looking for more
Love brought me home
Saw someone I used to know
So far gone
Love brought me home

Found out, outside of these doors
Was nothing at all
Love brought me home
Man down for a beautiful cause
Meaningful loss
I don't wanna loose you

'Cause it feels like loosing you means loosing me
I hope you know if you can't see

You matter to me
You matter to me
You matter to me
You matter to me
I matter to you
You matter to me
You're something I need
You're something to me

You matter
You matter
You matter
Matter (matter)

Sometimes you want to fly
But the ceilings no sky
Love bring you home
No tears, no reason, no cry
I'm here tonight
Love gave you home

Found out I rather your flaws
Than nothing at all
Love gave you home
My heart's in the middle of yours
It beats & it roars
I will always choose you

'Cause it feels like choosing you means choosing me
I hope you know if you can't see

You matter to me
You matter to me
You matter to me
You matter to me
I matter to you
You matter to me
You're something I need
You're something to me

You matter
You matter
You matter
Matter (matter)
You matter
You matter
You matter
Matter (matter)
