

Over Your Head

Cierra Ramirez

I would say sorry
But sorry for what?
I pulled the knife and you took the cut
Damn it hurt and you loved it
But now that you got it you're aggy as fuck
You keep hitting me up
When I don't know, I don't know how to do love no more

You call it being damaged, I call it complicated
Is it wrong to only love you being naked?
I know it might sound crazy, you don't even have to say it
Just put your lips on your favorite pink

Hey, you're in way over your head
Over your head
I need that thing that's gon' push me right over the edge, baby
You know I don't like to play fair, baby
You're in way over your

I'm hell on your body, you still wanna touch
Don't tell anybody, just keep it hush
Don't be stupid in love
You know I ain't the one, but I wish I was
I wish I was, but I don't know, I don't know how to do love no more

You call it being damaged, I call it complicated
Is it wrong to only love you being naked?
I know it might sound crazy, you don't even have to say it
Just put your lips on your favorite pink

You're in way over your head
Over your head
I need that thing that's gon' push me right over the edge, baby
You know I don't like to play fair, baby
You're in way over your

I don't need you but, I don't want nobody else
Nobody else, nobody
I don't need you but, I can't be all by myself
All by myself

You're in way over your head
But I know that you're good for it (over your)
But only when I want it
You're in way over your head
Over your head
I need that thing that's gon' push me right over the edge, baby
You know I don't like to play fair, baby
You're in way over your

(Over your head
I need that thing that's gon' push me right over the edge, baby
You know I don't like to play fair, baby
You're in way over your)
