

You Don't Know

Cierra Ramirez

I go, you stop at the door
So why won't you follow
We're in, so deep
Can't catch my breath
Been collecting tears, I just need some air

Some people will stand and stumble
Lost memories in an air tight bubble
Always remind us not to fall

You don't know what I've been through, mama
You don't know what I've been through
I've been knocking on the glass
But you keep walking past
You don't know what I've been through
Wish you new

I fall, and I need you to catch me
Alone, I move through the wind
Reaching, so close
I can't understand why this hour glass is running out of sand

This time you're gonna have to listen
And it's gonna be my decision
Even if I must let you go

You don't know what I've been through, mama
You don't know what I've been through
I've been knocking on the glass
But you keep walking past
You don't know what I've been through
Wish you new

Help me now
Don't let me down
Hold me more, and don't let go
Cause my whole world is about you
And I just can't live without you
And I really don't wanna go

Oh mama, oh mama...
Oh mama, oh mama...
