Time to choose

Ye

Sometimes, I get stupid thoughts
At the alley where I pass by in town
You're there and you embrace me
You comfort me from the hard days
As I look at your smile

Baby, I'm not too bad either
Even if there are lines of guys who want you
Oh yea oh my god
You melt my heart like the hot summer
(Hot hot)

I like you (only you)
Who are you gonna choose?
Time to choose

Sometimes, I really was confused
The sun rose and set, I was adjusting to a new pattern
If time was money homie
Then I lost a lot of money
I'm just pacing back and forth in front of your house

Exhaustion building up in me
But even so, your smile shines
Gimme some liquor no am I still little Too many worries I'm gettin from people
I wanna push away all this work
And just fill myself up with you, fill in it
I'm feeling impatient, babe I needa
Caffeine in my body first

When I see you, without knowing
I start to think ahead
When I see you, without knowing, I keep appealing to you
Uh uhm

Baby, I'm not too bad either
Even if there are lines of guys who want you
Oh yea oh my god
You melt my heart like the hot summer
(Hot hot)

I like you (only you)
Who are you gonna choose?
Time to choose

Hold up shawty, I look good in this white t, I'm dressing up
Thinking of you makes me excited, it's sweet
We're like bubble gum
She say like me, then let's go driving
I'll take photos of you to post on sns so come closer
Diving you, when we dance together, we shine so bright
Falling in love with you doesn't take too long, 30 minutes
Sometimes, I'll borrow the strength of alcohol, as if I've had a drink
Your body stole my heart, like a con artist

When I see you, without knowing
I start to think ahead
When I see you, without knowing, I keep appealing to you
Uh uhm

Baby, I'm not too bad either
Even if there are lines of guys who want you
Oh yea, oh my god
You melt my heart like the hot summer
(Hot hot)

I like you (only you)
Who are you gonna choose?
Time to choose

Wanna go to han river with me?
Let's spread a picnic blanket and order food
Let's lay on the grass and staring at blossom
With you with you
