

You're a victim of the life you were given
Secondhand wisdom brought your heart out of rhythm
Left in the cold with nowhere to go
But I'm calling, calling you home
We're one in the same, a heartache in vain
So, don't be ashamed that you ain't found your way
I'm getting tired, I know you are too
And if you can't try for you

Then, baby, try, try, try for me
They say your bridge is burned
And you can't fake a smile
But baby, try, try, try for me

Love unrequited turned into violence
And people get quiet when you reach for their hand
You say it's no use, they won't try for you
And if you won't try too

Then, baby, try, try, try for me
Your heart is pure
Your head ain't clean
But hold it high for me
Oh, baby, try, try, try for me
They say your bridge is burned
You can't fake a smile
But baby, try, try, try

You're torn to bones and skin
And I can feel you givin' in
And if you go into the wind
Then, I will let it take me too
So, if you can't try for you

Then, baby, try, try, try for me
Let's watch the tables turn
Watch you stay a while
And baby, try, try, try, try for me

Oh, baby, try, come on
And try, try, try, try for me
