

Someone

Cilla Black

Someone we all need one
Special someone (Someone) in our lives
Someone to believe in
So, let my someone be you
And let your someone be me

Never known a day that's ever been warmer
I can't recall my nights have ever been calmer
The peace that prevails, the air I inhale
Is sweeter by far than ever before
I've never felt a touch as tender as yours and dove's

Someone we all need one
Special someone (Someone) in our lives
Someone to believe in
So, let my someone be you
And let your someone be me

I do believe my cares have seldom been fewer
The dreams that I pursue have never been surer
The roads that I choose they all suit my shoes
I've learned how to give to live and let live
Since I've found a friend whom I can depend upon

Someone we all need one
Special someone (Someone) in our lives
Someone to believe in
So, let my someone be you
And let your someone be me

Let it be me
