

I just wanna see your stupid name on my phone
Make me feel like I'm the only one but we both know
The reason you're not answering is that you're not alone
You're not alone

What you do and what you say
Are two different things

You say you want this good love
You say you want it bad
But I just can't believe you
Cause if you want this good love
Then why you gotta be so
Bad
Bad

I'm always tryna play it cool but we both know
If I know I'm gonna see you there I have to go
Tryna hide it 'cause I just cannot let you see me sweat
Is it over yet?

You know I'm barely holding on
But I can't let go

You say you want this good love
You say you want it bad
But I just can't believe you
Cause if you want this good love
Why you gotta be so
Bad
Bad
Bad
Bad

Tell me what you want boy
Your time is running out
Are you messin' around
Or are you really down?
'Cause I know that you love the chase
Keep me coming back and walk away
And it makes no sense why you mess with me
'Cause you know I'm exactly what you need

What you do and what you say
Are two different things

You say you want this good love
You say you want it bad
But I just can't believe you
Cause if you want this good love
Why you gotta be so
Bad
Bad
Bad
Bad
