

Bye Boy Bye

Cimorelli

You think I would never leave
And you can walk in and out of my life as you please
You think you can mess with me
Well I think it's game over

All my girls so tired of hearing
"Hold on baby, I'll call you back"
Acting like it don't mean nothing
I got something to say about that
You lost the game
You have no case now leave and don't come back!
Leave and don't come back!

Boy, get gone, get going, get out
Boy, there's no use in running your mouth
Boy, your just a love taker
You ain't nothing but a heartbreaker
I got three little words to say to ya and that's
Bye boy bye

You say your a gentleman
But the way you treat me is so far from it
You think your a game
And you don't have to follow rules
'Cause it ain't your thing

All my girls so tired of thinking we got always taken back
Playing us out like we stupid
I got something to say about that
You lost the game
You have no case now leave and don't come back!
Leave and don't come back!

Boy, get gone, get going, get out
Boy, there's no use in running your mouth
Boy, your just a love taker
You ain't nothing but a heartbreaker
I got three little words to say to ya and that's
Bye boy bye

You had your chance now it's gone
And I deserve respect so get lost
This is the last time you hurt me

Boy, get gone, get going, get out
Boy, there's no use in running your mouth
Boy, your just a love taker
You ain't nothing but a heartbreaker
I got three little words to say to ya and that's
Bye boy bye

See ya!
