

Come Home (Stay Up Late)

Cimorelli

I'd walk for miles in your shoes
Mostly because I miss you
I'd take the smallest piece you'd give
And wait for years in the spot where you left

I'll keep your room the same
I'll leave the light on
When you come back it'll be like you were never gone

I'm neck deep
Wading til my bones creak
I can't sleep frozen in the June heat
I'll stay up late and wait for you to come home
To come home
To come home

I can't tell myself that you're gone
You just haven't come back yet
Counting all the things I did wrong
I wish you could forgive me for it all

I'll keep your room the same
I'll leave the light on
When you come back it'll be like you were never gone

I'm neck deep
Wading til my bones creak
I can't sleep frozen in the June heat
I'll stay up late and wait for you to come home
To come home
To come home

All the secrets that I keep for you
I'll bury them with me I still bleed for you

All the secrets that I keep for you
I'll bury them with me I still bleed for you

I'm neck deep
Wading til my bones creak
I can't sleep frozen in the June heat
I'll stay up late and wait for you to come home
To come home
To come home

I'll stay up late waiting
Please say you'll come back to me
I'll stay up late waiting
Please come home
