

If It Isn't You

Cimorelli

I am reckless with my heart, with my words
I never really cared about the ones who didn't stick around
Yeah, I cry about it, I get attached, I feel so dumb
But I did it to myself, always knew they'd let me down

But ever since you left baby, I've been a mess
The stars in the sky don't shine as brightly
So, tell me would it be so bad if you came back
Don't you remember how right it feels?
Cause I do, and if you asked me to

I'd come back to you, back to you
I'd come back to you, to you
You know it's only you, only you
I don't want nobody if it isn't you
If it isn't you
If it isn't you

Do you think about me?
Do you miss the nights when we would hang out and just drive around?
Do you think about it now?
I ask all my friends about you, and it hurts a little when they say you're happy
Cause a part of me still wishes you smile because of me

It's been a long time
I've written so many songs
And I bet all my friends are tired of hearing your name
I sound a little insane
But it's so hard to move on
When there's nobody like you
You're so special and I don't wanna spend another day without you

Baby it doesn't matter where this takes me, you could hurt me
But I miss you and I need you, I don't want to
But everybody knows that if you asked me to Yeah, if you asked me to

I'd come back to you, back to you
I'd come back to you, to you
You know it's only you, only you
I don't want nobody if it isn't you
If it isn't you
If it isn't you

I don't know what it is, I know he's not that special
I mean, at least, everyone keeps telling me that
But it feels like I'm never going to move on Like, for real I'm so obsessed with him
Like, Justin Bieber could ask me out on a date
And I'd be like, 'No, sorry, you're not J..'
I almost said his name!
Anyway, moral of the story is:
It's over, he probably hates me and I should just move on, right?

I'd come back to you, back to you
I'd come back to you, to you

Cause it's only you, only you
I don't want nobody if it isn't you, you

If it isn't you (if it isn't you) ...
If it isn't you
