

No Good

Cimorelli

Oh whoa, and you know I'm only lonely for you

Lock my bedroom door, fall to the floor (oh whoa)

I've been here too many times before (oh whoa)

It's always the same, hang up the phone and I realize, you don't care

I'm just there when you decide you want me

But this time around something broke inside (oh whoa)

"Just one more time", I tell myself

But one more time is not enough

Cause I'm no good at being lonely

No, I'm no good at being lonely

Don't wanna say that I need you, but I think that I do

I keep trying, but nothing can distract me from you

Cause I'm no good at being lonely

And you know I'm only lonely for you

Another night just lying here awake (oh whoa)

No matter what I do it always stays the same (oh whoa)

I'm on the edge, wondering "why do I even try?"

This is ridiculous, you always gotta play it like this

Guess I'll just sit back and watch it die (oh whoa)

Just one more try to save this love

But one more try is not enough

Cause I'm no good at being lonely

No, I'm no good at being lonely

Don't wanna say that I need you, but I think that I do

I keep trying, but nothing can distract me from you

Cause I'm no good at being lonely

And you know I'm only lonely for you

In the middle of the night, I'll think about the times

I'll redraw every picture of your life

I'm no good at moving on

I'll miss you every night, I'll write a thousand songs

Cause I'm no good at being lonely

No, I'm no good at being lonely

Cause I'm no good at being lonely

No, I'm no good at being lonely

Don't wanna say that I need you, but I think that I do

I keep trying, but nothing can distract me from you

Cause I'm no good at being lonely

And you know I'm only lonely for you
