

Pretty Boy

Cimorelli

You took me on a date
All I did was wait, did was wait
For you to do your hair
You think it's kinda cute
To never tell the truth, tell the truth
I'm starting not to care

You can keep your fancy cars
And your fake tans, your credit cars
Pretty obvious to me
That you're attention starved
You can keep your diamond studs
And your cheap lies and your entourage
Think you better shut your mouth
'Cause I've had enough

You, you think that everyone wants ya
You're just a pretty boy
You, I think it's time that I told ya
You're just a pretty boy
Choking on your own cologne
Don't leave a message at the tone
Delete my number from your phone
You, I don't think you ever noticed
You're just a pretty boy
You're just a pretty boy

Yeah, baby now I see
Why you can't be with me, be with me
You're in love with yourself
Boy, I've had it up to here
I'll leave you with your mirror, with your mirror
Go mess with someone else

You can keep your fancy cars
And your fake tans, your credit cars
Pretty obvious to me
That you're attention starved
You can keep your diamond studs
And your cheap lies and your entourage
Think you better shut your mouth
'Cause I've had enough

You, you think that everyone wants ya
You're just a pretty boy
You, I think it's time that I told ya
You're just a pretty boy
Choking on your own cologne
Don't leave a message at the tone
Delete my number from your phone
You, I don't think you ever noticed
You're just a pretty boy
pretty boy
You're just a pretty boy

I see exactly who you are now
You're not gonna treat me that way pretty boy, I'm leaving you behind now

You, you think that everyone wants ya
You're just a pretty boy
You, I think it's time that I told ya
You're just a pretty boy
Choking on your own cologne
Don't leave a message at the tone
Delete my number from your phone
You, I don't think you ever noticed
You're just a pretty boy
