

Stay Together

Cimorelli

I think I've heard it all
And you know I've built my share of walls
And you have your faults
Don't we all

And sometimes I want to run
Cause nobody tells you how to love
But out of everyone
It's still us

We've both been hurt
And I've put myself first
Too many times
We've cried
Cause sometimes
We're only human

And I'll never give up on us
Even though we're not supposed to believe in love
In this world of
Empty promises and broken trust, where
Everybody's breaking up
Well, let's stay, let's stay
Together
Together
Together
Together

You got those innocent eyes
But still you make mistakes sometimes
And you get scared and run and hide
Well that's life
And you see me at my worst
Well you could've just walked out the door
But you don't take a step
No, you stay

We both have scars
And deal with our own darkness
We have broken hearts
Cause sometimes we're only human

And I'll never give up on us
Even though we're not supposed to believe in love
In this world of
Empty promises and broken trust, where
Everybody's breaking up
Well, let's stay, let's stay
Together
Together
Together
Together

You're me forever and when things get tough
I know together we are strong enough
You're my forever and when things get tough

You're me forever and when things get tough
I know together we are strong,
Strong enough

And I'll never give up on us
Even though we're not supposed to believe in love
Well, let's stay, let's stay, let's stay

And I'll never give up on us
Even though we're not supposed to believe in love
Together
Together
Together
Together
