

Jacqueline

Circa Waves

They say stay at home
You don't care for the TV soaps
So Jacqueline, you're invincible
We're falling into the olden days
But you don't care for the old clichés
So Jacqueline, I know you know

But it's hard to make sense out of the movie
When you're in the starring role

Jacqueline, oh
Jacqueline, oh
You're invisible
(No one can dry your eyes, it's up to you)
Jacqueline, oh

So Jacqueline, when you're sleep deprived
You see through your mother's eyes
And all of the things she knew
So don't listen to anyone
Between you and the setting sun
You're doing the best you can do

But it's hard to make sense out of the movie
When you're in the starring role

Jacqueline, oh
Jacqueline, oh
You're invisible
(No one can dry your eyes, it's up to you)
Jacqueline, oh

The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend
The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend
The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend
The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend
The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend
The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend
The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend
The good times are well
Oh well, they're coming 'round the bend

Jacqueline, oh
Jacqueline, oh
You're invisible
(No one can dry your eyes, it's up to you)
Jacqueline, oh
