

Love's Run Out

Circa Waves

Say you'll never leave me,
That you'll never be in doubt,
And I'll love you,
Till all my love's run out.

And when I see you leaving,
Babe I wanna scream and shout,
Cos I love you,
Till all my love's run out.

And I don't need a fantasy,
This is real.
I don't have much,
But what you get is what you see,
Just me.

I'd share another lifetime,
Hold you in my heart.
I wish the finish line,
was further from the start.

So I call you up this evening,
To see if you're about,
Cos I love you,
Till all my love's run out.

And I don't need a fantasy,
This is real.
I don't have much,
But what you get is what you see,
Just me.

So say you never leave me,
And I'll never be in doubt,
That you'll love me,
Till all your love's run out.
