

Saw the writings on the wall
They were written in silver and gold
And my car wouldn't start
Wasn't feeling particularly young at heart
Saw a boy with no name
Throwing papers for chump change
Cracks in my window pane
I'll avoid all speed bumps on the way

The people passing by
Are cynical and strange
We don't see eye to eye
We don't see eye to eye

Oh I've been sidetracked once again
Yeah I've missed my turn to the bitter end
I've been sidetracked by all my friends
Sayin' where do you wanna go?
Where do you wanna go?

I've been sidetracked once again
Yeah I've missed my turn to the bitter end
I've been sidetracked by all my friends
Sayin' where do you wanna go?

Where do you wanna go today?
Where do you wanna go tonight?
You've been acting kind of strange
Sidetracked your whole life
You're sidetracked your whole life

Saw the clouds in the sky
No palm trees and no sunshine
I was rolling slow
Down a busy English motorway

With nothing passing by
Everyone staring straight
We don't see eye to eye
We don't see eye to eye

Oh I've been sidetracked once again
Yeah I've missed my turn to the bitter end
I've been sidetracked by all my friends
Sayin' where do you wanna go?
Where do you wanna go?

I've been sidetracked once again
Yeah I've missed my turn to the bitter end
I've been sidetracked by all my friends
Sayin' where do you wanna go?

Where do you wanna go today?
Where do you wanna go tonight?
You've been acting kind of strange
Sidetracked your whole life
You're sidetracked your whole life
