(...you're not home today)
We're on the inside blasting through
And we're not home today
You're right if you think we're blasting through
'Cause you're not home

You're on the outside blasting through
'Cause you're not home today
We're on the inside blasting through
And we're not home today
You're right if you think we're blasting through
'Cause you're not home today

You're on the outside blasting through
'Cause you're not home today
We're on the inside blasting through
And we're not home today
You're right if you think we're blasting through
'Cause you're not home today

You're on the outside blasting through
And you're not home today
We're on the inside blasting through
And we're not home today
You're right if you think we're blasting through
'Cause you're not home today

You're on the outside blasting through
And you're not home today
We're on the inside blasting through
And we're not home today
You're right if you think we're blasting through
'Cause you're not home today

(We're on the inside blasting through
And we're not home today)
(First obey what you see)
