

Outside Blasts

Circulatory System

Over the leaves, past the church (and bells)
You'll hear ancient voices singing
Walk past the leaves
Nevertheless here we go
If you want to talk about symbols
We are often symbols, definitions, tables
Hardware in a circular time
We just want to fly (away)
If you're given the chance (you are)
Would you walk up and down
The things inside of you?
Hear the message we send
There's no more waiting because
Everything's always been, and will be
We just want to fly away
We don't have much time
There's no time, for coming apart at the...
Seems like an ornament blue air raid
Are you sad about your mountain?
Was this a continent you liked?
There's no sound, just circular beaches
Accepting your part of it
Seems like a clock (poor old clock)
The country clock is invisible
