

Sacrifice

Cirith Ungol

Sow your seeds upon the night, cast your tales of sorrow
Through the lands of nevermore and the children of tomorrow
Lay the curse upon their heads, sacred visions now fulfilled
Begin the tragic journey towards the fate their gods have willed

A symphony of evil, begin their judgment day
Suffer in their madness, nowhere left to pray
A symphony of darkness, enter the light of day
Suffering their madness, another judgment day

A cold and brutal sacrifice to appease the empty skies
As they build a reign of terror and their pantheon of lies
A morbid congregation, their end has just begun
Along the never ending fade, and evils will be done

Beating hearts upon the alter, blood and dreams upon the sand
Another shining moment for our brotherhood of man

Penance for the innocent, the dark parade of fear
A sacrifice to madness, judgment day is here
