

Break Up

Citizen Queen

You don't do the same things
You used to do when you cared (Oh, oh)
Where's all the passion
You had when trying to get me there (Oh, oh)
I fall, I fell
Put you before myself
My fault, oh well
I did it to myself
Put away that sad shit
Honestly you won't catch no tears off me, no

You say you love me
Now we're in between (Nah, nah, nah)
You don't feel a thing
Till we in the sheets (Nah, nah, nah)
Throwin' off my zen
Don't need one more friend (Nah, nah, nah)
It's clear as the ice on my chest

I think we should break up
I don't need no fake love
I'm way too booked and busy
To be wasting all of me
I think we should break up
I won't see you later
I wish you the best
But it's not gonna be with me
Got no time for you
Got no time for that, Got no time
Got no time for you
Got no time for that, Got no time
I think we should break up
I don't need no fake love
I'm way too booked and busy
To be wasting all of me

Tryna play it cool
But I know you
You ain't fuckin' cool
Let me show you
I got receipts
I know you broke as hell
Emotionally, I gotta bid you well
I won't play it cool
I ain't no ice cube
I ain't no ice cube, no no (No, no)

You say you love me
Now we're in between (Nah, nah, nah)
You don't feel a thing
Till we in the sheets (Nah, nah, nah)
Throwin' off my zen
Don't need one more friend (Nah, nah, nah)
It's clear as the ice on my chest

I think we should break up
I don't need no fake love

I'm way too booked and busy
To be wasting all of me
I think we should break up
I won't see you later
I wish you the best
But it's not gonna be with me (Ain't gonna be with me)
Got no time for you
Got no time for that, Got no time (For that)
Got no time for you
Got no time for that, Got no time
I think we should break up
I don't need no fake love
I'm way too booked and busy
To be wasting all of me

All your finger prints
On my subconscious
Makes me second guess why
I ever let you
Inside my bedroom
Fool me once
Never twice

I think we should break up
I don't need no fake love (Fake love)
I'm way too booked and busy
To be wasting all of me (No, all of me)
I think we should break up
I won't see you later (Woah)
I wish you the best
But it's not gonna be with me (Ain't gonna be with me)
Got no time for you
Got no time for that, Got no time (Ah, time for that)
Got no time for you
Got no time for that, Got no time (Got no time)
I think we should break up
I don't need no fake love
I'm way too booked and busy
To be wasting all of me, no no

Ain't gonna be with me
Ain't gonna be with me
Ain't, ain't
Ain't gonna be with me, be with me (Uh)
Ain't gonna be with me
