

Kill My Memory

Citizen Soldier

Empty bed, no trace of you
Can't say that I'm surprised
All the hell I put you through
Was showing through your eyes
Can't say I blame you at all
I hate myself for what I've done
I swore that I'd never call
But I just need you to know

I'm so sorry I had to be the one
The one to break you and let you come undone
I know I let you down, you deserve much more than me
Just leave me here for dead, I'm begging please
Kill my memory

6AM, I'm getting weaker
Keep reaching for the phone
Tell myself it's wasted time
Cause you're not coming home
I left you so many scars
I don't deserve a second chance
You gave me all that you are
I let you slip through my hands

I'm so sorry I had to be the one
The one to break you and let you come undone
I know I let you down, you deserve much more than me
Just leave me here for dead, I'm begging please
Kill my memory

It's keeping me awake
Every chance I had
Now it's just too late
There's no going back
You are better off
Without a trace of my memory
Can you just erase me

I'm so sorry I had to be the one
The one to break you and let you come undone
I know I let you down, you deserve much more than me
Just leave me here for dead, I'm begging please
Kill my memory
