

Letdown

Citizen Soldier

L-E-T-D-O-W-N

Don't let me pull you down into the place I'm in

Church of failure, I'm the martyr
I've got the touch that turns the wine into water
Wrote the bible, I'm the author
Of how to disappoint your mother and your father

There's nobody better than me at ruining everything
There's nobody better than me

'Cause I'm a letdown, don't put your faith in me
I'm a burnout in the third-degree
I'll get your hopes sky-high, then I'll kill 'em dead
So expect the worst, then a little less
I'm a letdown, I got my own gravity
Don't let it pull ya down to the bottom with me
I'll get your hopes sky-high, then I'll kill 'em dead
So expect the worst, then a little less

L-E-T-D-O-W-N

Don't let me pull you down into the place I'm in

L-E-T-D-O-W-N

Don't let me pull you down into the place I'm in

I'm the prophet of getting captured
My core beliefs that kill you slow just like a cancer
I'll blame the whole world 'cause I'm the master
Of playing victim but I'm Judas, just an actor

There's nobody better than me at ruining everything
There's nobody better than me, better than me

'Cause I'm a letdown, don't put your faith in me
I'm a burnout in the third-degree
I'll get your hopes sky-high, then I'll kill 'em dead
So expect the worst, then a little less
I'm a letdown, I got my own gravity
Don't let it pull ya down to the bottom with me
I'll get your hopes sky-high, then I'll kill 'em dead
So expect the worst, then a little less

I'm a liar when you need trust
A cheater when you need love
A coward when you need tough
There's nobody better than me at ruining everything
I'm a danger when you need safe
A clinger when you need space
A tyrant when you need grace
There's nobody better than me at ruining everything
There's nobody better than me at ruining everything

My brothers and sisters
I hate myself
Hallelujah

'Cause I'm a letdown, don't put your faith in me

I'm a burnout in the third-degree
I'll get your hopes sky-high, then I'll kill 'em dead
So expect the worst, then a little less
I'm a letdown, I got my own gravity
Don't let it pull ya down to the bottom with me
I'll get your hopes sky-high, then I'll kill 'em dead
So expect the worst, then a little less

L-E-T-D-O-W-N

Don't let me pull you down into the place I'm in

L-E-T-D-O-W-N

Don't let me pull you down, let me pull you down
