

Catch Your Fall

Citizen Way

Tune in. Here it is.
You might wanna write this down
Keep in mind that what you hear
Is just as simple as it sounds
I know it seems
Like you've heard it all before
The church to you is a bunch of fairytales
Behind a Sunday door
Truth is those walls
Are like a rag doll busted at the seams
Today's religion is a puppet master
Pullin' on the strings
But there's more, much more
More than puppets and loose threads
Just hear me out

Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're stronger than you think they are
Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're holding out to you in love

Green light. Run. Run.
It seems that's all you ever do
You make a living slowly dyin'
To what the world can offer you
Red light. Hold up.
Are you running the right way?
Because it doesn't matter how fast you run
When you play chicken with a train
If you want to Change the way in which you face
Then just turn around

Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're stronger than you think they are
Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're holding out to you in love

There's more than you know

Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're stronger than you think they are
Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're holding out to you yeah

Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're stronger than you think they are
Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're holding out to you in
Love

Start running
Start running
Start running

Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're stronger than you think they are

Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're holding out to you in

Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're stronger than you think they are
Start running to the arms that catch your fall
They're holding out to you in

Start running
Start running
Start running
