

Headtrip

Citizen

Nice job, but there's no result
No work, no getting after
And I didn't get the memo
But I'll be around whenever

I don't know which way to go
So tell me what I need to know right now

I want to be a witness
Pay more attention to this
I'm dealing with a head trip
I'm dealing with a head trip

I don't know which way to go
So tell me what I need to know
And the choice is individual
It is something so particular

Flowers spring through the wall
They can't be there anymore
I don't want to be a fraud

I want to be a leader
Package and sell my vision
Put on a brand new t-shirt
Teach you survival

I won't be the one to trip you up
Or shake you down and leave for fun
I could buy you something nice for once
Or take you out to California

Flowers spring through the wall
They can't be there anymore
I don't want to be a fraud

Flowers spring through the wall
They can't be there anymore
I don't want to be a fraud

I want to have a big headstone, yeah
Don't want to be Post-It noted
One second and the chance is stolen
Oh no, oh no
I want to be a big, strong soldier
Go out with a gun to the throat, yeah
I want to have a big headstone, yeah
Oh oh, oh oh

No, I won't be the one to trip you up
Or leave you alone when you're fucking up
And the choice is individual
It is something so particular

Flowers spring through the wall
They can't be there anymore
I don't want to be a fraud

Flowers spring through the wall
They can't be there anymore
I don't want to be a fraud
