

I Forgive No One

Citizen

Head full of ketamine
Throw yourself into your hole
Bite into the flesh that controls you
That controls you
Supernal mind sings
The universal fault
Tear into the heads that cried for you
That cried for you too soon

Hollow
I forgive no one for anything
Hollow
I forgive no one for anything

Feet in the concrete
A seasoned undertone
In every fabrication there's always truth
There's always truth
Obscure reality
The condescending soul
Spit into the mouths that spoke for you
That spoke for you too soon

Hollow
I forgive no one for anything
Hollow
I forgive no one for what can change
Hollow
I forgive no one for anything
Hollow
I forgive, I forgive for none

You're something I can't dig into
You're something I can't sink my hands in too much
It's best you have too much to lose
It's best that everything is too far to touch
You're something I can't dig into
You're something I can't sink my hands in too much
It's best you have too much to lose
It's best that everything is too far to touch

You're something I can't dig into
(Reason is prison to you)
You're something I can't sink my hands in too much
It's best you have too much to lose
(Resolution you ridicule)
It's best that everything is too far to touch
You're something I can't dig into
(Reason is prison to you)
You're something I can't sink my hands in too much
It's best you have too much to lose
(Resolution you ridicule)
It's best that everything is too far to touch

Hollow
I forgive no one for anything
Hollow

I forgive no one for what can change
Hollow
I forgive no one for anything
Hollow
I forgive, I forgive for none
