

Ring of Chain

Citizen

You could be my savior when I'm in need of another one
I could be your bait when you will hide from what you're running from
I was medicated but I ended up where I was
I was beautiful, I was yet to be someone

I know they won't let me in
They don't wear my skin
I know that the pieces fit
I know what you meant

Lay me down where you are or where you want to be
There's a quiet breeze and it sings for me

I was giving way for all of the stories I have chose to waste
The bells rang out when you were carried out to keep the pace
I was barricaded, I was choking up from my restraints
I was elegant, I was yet to deviate

I know they won't let me in
They don't wear my skin
I know where the fragments fit
I know what you meant

Lay me out on the floor, show off your display
There's a lineament and it fills the walls
Lay me out where you are, where I need to be
There's a quiet breeze and it sings for me

A ring of chain takes place of me
But where am I?
But where am I?
A ring of chain takes place of me
But where am I?
But where am I?
