

Weave Me (Into Yr Sin)

Citizen

I am coming clean with myself
I'm peeling off a film of a former me and you can tell
I wish you could see me now
I am fluorescent and new
Faces in the fixtures are screaming at me once again
Fabric fills the holes in their heads
See where it gets me in the end
Stay for a minute and listen

Bandaging... So bittersweet
Your spirit glows, yet you don't know
Suit yourself fittingly
The haze surrounds only us

Give the time to come to the mud
Weave me into your sin
I am strong and well-founded but you just don't like to admit it
Let your thoughts subside
For every moment living in spite, I'm forever in debt
Colored vision flooding my eyes
Open your being to mine
Leave the past behind

Softening... So bittersweet
I'm holding on, yet no one knows
Suit yourself fittingly
The dust will swallow us whole

I am coming clean with myself
My darling, my darling
Now that I've shed my skin, you can tell I'm brighter than ever
The flood has washed my bitter design
Polished in every way
I am coming clean into love
I'll die if you let me
I am coming clean with myself
My darling, my darling
Now that I've seen the world through your eyes, I'm brighter than ever before
Bandaging all of me

Selfish me... So bittersweet
A suspicious love for the sake of us
Suit yourself fittingly
My arms are opened up
Suit yourself fittingly
The haze surrounds only us
